PRVHC Veteran's Legion Tribute Officer

(updated August 2009)

1. Receives and actions requests from the PRVHC Staff and families of PRVHC Veterans and other veteran's families in Zone G 5 who want a Legion Tribute but do not have a Legion Branch to perform the ceremony.
2. The PRVHC are to be kept advised of the Officer's and Zone Secretary's Phone Numbers.
3. Branches agreed in March of 2009 that the Branch who is responsible for the Bingo would look after any Funeral Tribute requirements. However this is only good for 10 months of the year and not all Branches may be available for a service. Therefore, the Officer may use these resources or build a team of willing members.
4. The Zone Chaplain has offered to assist.
5. Legion Tributes should be set up at least ½ hour before a Funeral so as not to conflict with the regular Funeral proceedings; hopefully even the evening before, if remains are laid out in a funeral parlor.
6. The Officer will prepare the Tribute Pamphlet (see Annex A) and provide it to the Comrade in charge to read. This will follow the detailed readings and procedures contained in the ritual and Insignia Manual and must be non-sectarian. It will be handed to the next of kin of the Veteran by the Comrade in charge together with the card of condolence (see annex B).
7. The Officer will act as the Sergeant at Arms for these tributes.
8. The Officer will advise the Zone Secretary of the name of the veteran who had died, the date & time and the place of the Tribute. The Secretary will advise the members of the Zone Council and all the branches of the Zone so that any who wish may attend the tribute.
9. The Officer is expected to make a verbal report at all Zone Council meetings, and is to prepare a written report to all Zone Conventions, having it ready at least two weeks before the Zone Convention for inclusion, by the Zone Secretary, in the Zone Convention Book. Addendums may be made at the Zone Convention.

Zone Chaplain

1. The Zone Chaplain performs the invocation at Zone Council and Zone Conventions. Prayers should be non-denominational.
2. He may offer counseling to Veteran's and Legion Members requiring his services.
3. He may assist at Legion Funeral Tributes.
4. The Chaplain may report to Zone Council and Zone Conventions.
